

STATE Virginia	COUNTY Hanover	TOWN OR VICINITY GUMTREE VIC (ABOUT 6 MILES W) 3p
INDEX NUMBER VA, 43- — 2-	MONUMENT Dewberry - ROAD # 51 (2 MILES E. OF COATESVILLE)
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VA 752	History: Hole in wall from cannon ball fired during War Between the States. Now owned by Mrs. F. L. Dickson, Price Hill, West Virginia. Description: Brick, main central part two stories and basement with one story wings on each side. Brickwork Flemish bond. Hipped roof. Interior woodwork fair. Building is in good condition and surrounded by attractive grounds.
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
GPO 6-8369		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

Author

Major Eugeng Bradbury
Upperville, Virginia

District Officer
January 15, 1937